Chief, FBIB

Operating Instruction

1. You will proceed to Okinawa on or about 15 September 1948 for the purpose of activating the Okinawa monitoring station.
2. You will be in charge of all FBIB personnel assigned to this project.
3. You will be directly responsible to the Chief, FBIB, Washington, D. C.
4. You will explore possibilities of recruiting foreign national personnel, the training facilities available, the salary scales commensurate with local laws and customs, and report your findings and recommendations to this Headquarters.

Upon approval by this Headquarters of a Table of Organization and salary scales, you will recruit and employ personnel for the purpose of initiating monitoring operations at Okinawa. It is contemplated that monitoring operations will commence prior to the activation of the FBIB monitoring station in accordance with the priorities indicated on attached coverage schedule.

5. You will arrange for the employment of the necessary administrative personnel as required to carry out your mission.

6. You will establish necessary contacts with both Army and Air Force personnel on the island of Okinawa, and you will either personally or through the Chief of the Tokyo Bureau, be responsible for the necessary contacts with CHQ FEC.

7. You will sign for and assume responsibility for permanent FBIB property, equipment and materiel.

8. You will submit a bi-monthly progress report addressed to the Chief, FBIB, Washington, until activation of the monitoring station, at which time a normal monthly report will be submitted.
